OAP is mauled by relative's XL bully

Man, 73, rushed to ARI with serious facial injuries after dog attack

XL bullies face tighter regulation.

BY BRYAN RUTHERFORD
AND DAVID MCPHEE

AN ABERDEEN pensioner has suffered severe injuries to his face, arms and hands after being mauled by a relative's XL bully.

The 73-year-old man was attacked by the male dog named Gunna when he went to check on his family member's pets while the owner was on holiday.

The OAP is in Aberdeen Royal Infirmary after receiving surgery following the incident at a property in Dyce on Wednesday.

Police said a 70-year-old woman was also taken to hospital.

Gunna's owner Jack Watson, 22, said the attack came as "a very big shock" for his family and that his dog will be destroyed.

He said: "It's a nightmare that I thought would never happen."

Humza Yousaf announced on Thursday that Scotland would bring in tighter regulations over XL bullies to mirror legislation in England and Wales.

STRACHAN FAMILY CONVENTION
(31 JULY 2024)

Those with the Strachan surname, spelling broadly defined, are invited to attend the Strachan Family Convention on 31 July 2024 at the Feughside Guesthouse, Strachan, Aberdeenshire at 13:00. Attendance by web link will be possible.

The Lord Lyon is likely only to assign the Chiefly Arms (the mechanism by which a person becomes Chief) to a candidate who has the clear support of the Family Convention. A person who has not previously served as Commander may be required by the Lord Lyon to serve a five or ten year term as Commander before the Lord Lyon would be prepared to assign the Chiefly Arms to that person.

Individuals wishing to put themselves forward as a candidate for Commander or Chief of Clan Strachan are also encouraged to come forward. A candidate must bear the surname alone and must be proposed and seconded by a Strachan authorised to attend the Family Convention. Self-nomination is permitted. This does not mean a new candidate will be appointed Chief immediately. If a new candidate emerges, the Lord Lyon, may insist they serve for a period as Commander. The convention's decision is subject to the Lord Lyon's approval. The Clan Strachan Society cannot favour any candidate.

If interested in being a candidate or attending the Family Convention, please email jim@clanstrachan.org with proof of your use of the surname on or before 30 March 2024.
